COURSE OUTLINE

Part 1
Introduction

- Having an open mind while learning about emerging technologies.
- Introduction to Blockchain Technology
- Cryptocurrency: a dynamic offspring of the Blockchain Tech.

Part 2
Why Blockchain Matters to Lawyers

Part 3
Tokenization and Classification of Tokens

- What is tokenization?
- Five Dimensions for Classifying Tokens
- Classification of Tokens
  a. Asset tokens or asset-backed tokens
  b. Currency or payment tokens
  c. Utility tokens
- Differences between Tokens and Coins

Crowdsales and Virtual Assets, Structure, Risks, and Best Practices

a. Initial Coin Offering (ICO)
b. Initial Token Offering (It0), Token Generation Event
c. Initial Exchange Offering (IEO)
d. Securities Token Offering (STO)

Cryptocurrency Exchanges

a. What are Cryptocurrency Exchanges?
b. Types of Cryptocurrency Exchanges: (i) Centralized Cryptocurrency Exchanges, and (ii) Decentralized Cryptocurrency Exchanges
c. Differences between Centralized and Decentralized Exchanges
d. Why Decentralized Exchanges Want to Replace Centralized Exchanges

Part 4
Blockchain & Cryptocurrency Regulation and Consumer Protection

- KYC, AML, and CFT: Financial Risks, Security, and Consumer Protection
- Blockchain and Cryptocurrency Regulation across Major Jurisdictions
  a. United States
  b. China
  c. Switzerland
  d. Malta
  e. Estonia
  f. South Africa
  g. Nigeria

COURSE OUTLINE

Part 5

Smart Contracts and the Law

1. What are smart contracts?
2. What are the types, benefits, applications, and limitations of smart contracts?
3. Are smart contracts legally enforceable?
4. Will smart contracts make lawyers irrelevant?

How Lawyers Can Leverage Blockchain for Professional Growth and Opportunities?

1. Blockchain and cryptocurrency Contract Drafting and Transactional Practice
2. ICO/STO/IEO Legal Advisory Services
3. Blockchain and cryptocurrency Business Formation Onshore and Offshore
4. Blockchain and cryptocurrency Investment Advisory Services
5. AML/KYC Advisory and Drafting Services
6. Data Protection and Privacy
7. Smart Contracts
8. Legal Risks Management and Regulatory Compliance
9. Legal Representation in Dispute Resolution
10. Business Negotiation
11. Private Equity Advisory
12. Blockchain and Cryptocurrency Legal Consultancy
13. Blockchain and Cryptocurrency Research, Policy Formulation, and Legislative Drafting

- Visit https://bit.ly/36WXLp1 to view highlights and photos of Blockchain for Lawyers 101, 5 July 2019, Lagos, including what participants had to say.
- Visit https://bit.ly/2rsZRwmto to register for the program online.